Correspondence Between Gen. Pope and Gov. Jenkins, of Georgia.

Augusta, April 24. - In a correspondence between General Pope and Governor Jenkins, General Pope asks Governor Jenkins if he had seen "general order No. 1," issued April 10th, in reference to organizing the States under the military bill, before the latter issued his address to the people of Georgia, advising leading traits of character, &c. This is no humnon-action until the question is settled by the Supreme Court.

Governor Jenkins replies that he had supby the accident of the speaker or writer holding office. In the future he shall do and say what he believes to be required by his duty and his oath of office. This, the Governor hopes, will not involve either conflict or controversy between them in the execution of their respective | Hudson, N. Y. trusts, as he thinks it need not. Everything of this character he desires to avoid.

The General says Jenkins's explanation is being sent to execute the law of Congress, he | place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a will carry out the provisions of the military bill, which recognized existing State governments as merely provisional. Had Congress contemplated opposition from the civil authorities it would have legislated the present State governments out of existence.

SENATOR WILSON ON SLAVERY AND STATE to create the impression that he has been, "for thirty years," consistent in his present position on the subject of slavery. Perhaps so. In the appendix to the Congressional Globe, volume 31. 2d session, Thirty third Congress, page 238, we find the following in a speech by -Henry Wilson!

"We believe that slavery in the States is a for its existence, and that we have no legal au- an order by W. L. CLARK & Co., Chemists, thority to interfere with it in any way whatever. I am content to leave slavery to the people of the States where it now exists. I same. recognize the Democratic doctrine of States Rights, in its application to slavery, as well as to other local affairs, and, while I have a seat in this chamber, I shall resist all attempts to encroach upon the reserved rights of the sovereign States of the Union! I will stand of the person you are to marry, and by the aid side by side with my Democratic friends in of an instrument of intense power, known as vindication of the Virginia and Kentucky the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a resolutions of 1798-9, which they endorsed in perfect and life-like picture of the future hus-Baltimore in 1852!"

A MELANCHOLY CASE.—The Fishkill (N. Y. Standard) states that the oldest daughter of Gilbert B. Beebee, editor of the Banner of Liberty, formerly of Middletown, Orange county, but now published in New York, committed suicide on Saturday, by shooting herself with a pistol. She had been engaged to be married to a young man, but her father placed her in a lunatic asylum to break up the match. The officers of the asylum, finding she was not insane, let her go home. She was to take charge of a school on Monday, but learning of the marriage of the gentleman to whom she had been engaged, deliberately shot herself.

STROLOGY. THE WORLD ASTONISHED At the wonderful revelations made by the Great Astrologist MADAME H. A. PERRIGO. She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of re-lations and friends, loss of money, &c., have be-come despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue, and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament-the mal-fic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity.
